RCI Magazine

Established for over 25 years, Roofing, Cladding & Insulation Magazine has lead the UK roofing, cladding and insulation market since its inception in 1980. RCI's high editorial standards have made this magazine a 'must read' for the whole industry, and its ongoing success is unrivalled.

RCI magazine is known in the industry for its volume and depth of quality editorial and its circulation of wholly industry-specific requested readership. It's often referred to as the bible of this industry, providing the most up to date company, products and trade name listings with main addresses, branches, sources, technical notes and industry editorial. This is widely acclaimed to be the best used annual for the industry.

RCI Magazine is published 12 times a year, to subscribe visit www.rcimag.co.uk/magazine-subscription
